Troy swimmer Maggie Scherder was chosen from more than 2,400 entries to be featured during a one-hour video presentation of children, teens and adults with Down Syndrome to be featured at Times Square in New York City on Sept. 17.

Troy’s Scherder to be featured in Times Square video

Troy, Mo. - Maggie Scherder of Troy will appear in the bright lights of Broadway on Sept. 17, as part of the annual National Down Syndrome Society Times Square Video Presentation.

The one-hour video of roughly 500 photographs includes children, teens and adults with Down Syndrome from all 50 states. These collective images promote the value, acceptance and inclusion of people with Down Syndrome in a very visible way.

The photo of Scherder was selected from more than 2,400 entries in the NDSS worldwide call for photos. Her photo will be shown on two JumboTron screens in the heart of Times Square, thanks to the support of ClearChannel Outdoor.

The two screens are located above Dos Caminos restaurant in Father Duffy Square. The presentation will be live streamed on the NDSS Facebook page from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. EDT on Sept. 17.

Scherder is pictured at the World Para Series swim meet at IUPUI Natatorium in Indianapolis, where she was the first swimmer with Down syndrome to qualify and compete at this event in April.

The Times Square Video Presentation will be followed by the New York City Buddy Walk® in Central Park. The flagship Buddy Walk has taken place in New York City since 1995 as part of the National Buddy Walk Program. Buddy Walk events are held in hundreds of cities across the country, as well as select international locations.
